

AAA lectures – Greater Indus - 2023 Program (9 lectures)

Organizers: Ute Franke & V. N. Prabhakar

11.04.2023

Cameron Petrie & Carla Lancelotti – “Living in the Diverse Environments of the Indus Civilisation: Insights from the Sky down and Ground up.”

18.04.2023

Jennifer Bates & Marco Madella – “Understanding Ancient Agriculture of the Indus Valley Civilisation - Challenges and Potentials. What we know and why this is important, but also with problems.”

25.04.2023

P. P. Joglekar – “Understanding Environment and Animal-based Subsistence through Archaeozoological Record.”

09.05.2023

Benjamin Mutin & Vasant Shinde – “From Village to City: The Chalcolithic Period in Pakistan (5th – early 3rd Millennia BCE).” / “Approaches to the Understanding of Cultural Transformation from Village to City with Special Reference to NW India.”

16.05.2023

Aurore Didier – “New insights on Urbanism and Architecture of the Early Centuries to the Indus Valley Civilisation. New Data from the 2015-2022 excavations at Chanhu-daro.”

23.05.2023

Veena Mushrif-Tripathi – “Overview of Mortuary Behaviour of Harappans.”

06.06.2023

Jonathan Mark Kenoyer – “Archaeological and Ethnoarchaeological Approaches to Indus Socio-Economic, Political and Ideological Organization: Methodologies and Interpretative Frameworks.”

13.06.2023

Dennys Frenez – “Writing and Administration in the Indus Civilization: Origins, Developments, and Contexts of use.”

20.06.2023

Randall Law – “The Stone and Metal Trade Networks of the Indus Civilization.”