

AAA lectures – North Pontic & South-East Balkans – 2024 Program
(April–June 2024, Thursdays at 4 p.m. CET)

Organizers: Agathe Reingruber & Elke Kaiser

18.04.2024

Bogdan Athanassov (Sofia) – “Argonauts of the 2nd millennium BCE in the western Black Sea area: tracing links between cultures, economies and social groups”.

25.04.2024

Udo Schlotzhauer (Berlin) – “Early Greek contacts in the western and northern Pontic regions”.

16.05.2024

Henny Piezonka (Berlin) – “Hunter-gatherer worlds of postglacial Eastern Europe: relations and innovations between Black Sea, Baltic and Urals”.

23.05.2024

Dmytro Kiosak (Odesa / Bordeaux) – “Why is ‘the Buh-Dniester culture’ a poor heuristic?”

06.06.2024

Michael Meyer (Berlin), Octavian Munteanu (Chişinău) – “Pre-Roman Iron Age in East Carpathian forest steppe: regional and supra-regional connections”.

13.06.2024

Bisserska Gaydarska (Durham) – “Political organisation at the earliest low density, egalitarian cities in Eurasia: a Trypillia megasite narrative.”

20.06.2024

Adina Boroneanţ (Bucharest) – “Early Holocene fishing practices in the Iron Gates of the Danube”.

27.06.2024

Denis Topal (Chişinău) – “Early nomads on the western fringe of the Eurasian steppe during the Iron Age: From “birth en route” to the “symbolic death” of Ares’ children”.